Thirty years of healthy babies

Since 1991, 250,000 babies were born healthier thanks to Fondation Olo and its allies!

Quebec takes action The Higgins® for young children intervention method through perinatal (Eggs-Milk-Oranges) health programs is developed by the Montreal Diet Dispensary The acronym "OLO" (first An emergency fundraising letters of the French words campaign is started to help for eggs, milk and oranges) pregnant women eat well comes into use and the first during the COVID-19 crisis Olo project is launched 1940 in Valleyfield 2020 The first Olo Olo offers to collaborate with baby is born community organizations Reaching more f_{amir.} across Quebec 2019 The Olo trio of foods changes to include vouchers for frozen Fondation Olo vegetables is created 2018 The Quebec government grants The Canada Prenatal funding of $4.25M -Nutrition Program over 5 years to support (CPNP) begins funding Interventions more families, through programs for vulnerable felication on healthy eating habits more resources pregnant women for a longer time in a child's life n° The Olo Blog is launched The 1st major as parents' everyday helper fundraising campaign is launched 2014 The effectiveness and Fondation Olo broadens 1000 Days to Savour Life kicks its mission to include cost-efficiency of the Olo off with the goal of supporting guidance and support intervention are demonstrated practitioners and encouraging on healthy eating habits in a study by Catherine Haeck parents to eat well, cook, and Pierre Lefebvre (UQAM) and enjoy family mealtimes The 2nd major fundraising campaign, "Nurturing future generations, one spoonful

at a time" starts

fondationolo.ca 🖪 🖸 in 🗅